PENALTIES FOR MISUSING THIS CONTENT:

Title 18, Section 1001 of the U.S. Code states that a person is guilty of a felony for knowingly and willingly making false or fraudulent statements to any department of the United States Government. HUD and any owner (or any employee of HUD or the owner) may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper use of information collected based on the consent form. Use of the information collected based on this verification form is restricted to the purposes cited above. Any person, who knowingly or willingly requests, obtains or discloses any information under false pretenses concerning an applicant or participant may be subject to a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000. Any applicant or participant affected by negligent disclosure of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the officer or employee of HUD or the owner responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or improper use. Penalty provisions for misusing the social security number are contained in the Social Security Act at 208 (a) (6), (7) and (8). Violation of these provisions are cited as violations of 42 U.S.C.408 (a) (6), (7) and (8).

STATEMENT REQUIRED BY THE PRIVACY ACT

The USDA, Rural Development, is authorized by Title V of the Housing Act of 1949 as amended (42 U.S.C.1471 et. Seq.) to solicit the information requested on this form. Disclosure of the information requested is voluntary. However, failure to disclose certain items of information may result in a delay in the processing of your eligibility or rejection, except that is unlawful for Rural Development to deny eligibility because of the refusal to disclose the Social Security Account Number.

The principal purposes for collecting the requested information are to determine eligibility for occupancy in the Rural Development financed rental project and to determine the amount of tenant contribution for rent. The information collected on this form may be released to appropriate Federal, State, and Local Agencies when relevant to civil, criminal or regulatory proceedings.

 - a. Is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration,
 - b. Substantially impedes the person's ability to live independently and could be improved by more suitable housing conditions,
 - c. Is of such a nature that the person's ability to live independently and could be improved by more suitable housing conditions.

4. The term handicapped (or handicap) further means, with respect to a person, a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities; a record of such an impairment; or being regarded as have such an impairment. This term does not include current illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance. As used in this definition, physical or mental impairment includes:
 - a. Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special senses organs; respiratory; including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive, genito-urinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine or,
 - b. Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term "physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart diseases, diabetes, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction (other than addiction caused by current, illegal use of a controlled substance) and alcoholism.

5. Major life activities means functions such as caring for one's self, performing major tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working.

6. Has a record of such an impairment means has a history of, or has been misclassified as having mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more of major life activities.

7. Is regarded as having an impairment means:
 - a. Has a physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit one or more major life activities, but that is treated by another person as constituting such a limitation,
 - b. Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities only as a result of the attitudes of others toward such impairment or,
 - c. Has one of the impairments defined in paragraph 4a and 4b of this definition but is treated by another person as having such an impairment.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
